

Dear Friends!

In the radiant glow of festive lights, ACTEA wishes you a merry Christmas! This season, painted with the colours of joy and hope, is a perfect time to celebrate our collective journey in theological education across the breathtaking landscapes of Africa.

May this Christmas season grace you and your loved ones with abundant joy, peace and moments of pure delight! Amidst the festive spirit, let us celebrate and embrace the blessings theological growth nurtured throughout the year.

The true essence of this season lies not only in festivity but in the spirit of generosity and solidarity. Together, let's unite to spread the Good News of Christ by supporting theological education in Africa.

*Warmest regards,
Rev. Dr. David Tarus
